Foreword

It has been our purpose to depict the personalities, portray the activities, and record the experiences that have made this year memorable; and to preserve by means of words and pictures the poignant memories of 1938 at Intermont.

The 1938 INTERMONT presents an accurate and informal picture of college life. The activities of the V. I. girl include everything from frenzied last minute cramming for that deadly French or Bible test to enthusiastic "trucking" in the students' lounge after meals.

She sits up half the night in a bull-session, merrily cuts breakfast next morning, hastily sweeps the dirt under the bed, and dashes to class where she listens attentively and takes copious notes—just before exams; and by mid-morning she may be found at the tea house.

During study hour she learns how to disappear under beds at the monitor's knock or, being a student of human nature, estimates how much bulling she can get by with on tomorrow's lesson; or she studies —just before exams.

and Theme...

Thursday nights she either has a date, or wishes she had. Sunday afternoon she waits for that special letter (if she gets it, she can go to town Monday afternoon). And Sunday night she gets the blues. Always, by her cry of "Has the mail been around?" shall you know her.

For longer than it cares to remember, the annual staff has been hiding behind trees, peering through keyholes, lurking in shadows, and in general committing its soul to perdition, tracking this V. I. animal to her lair. Armed only with a candid camera, our stalwart photographers have ventured into darkest Intermont.

Frankly, we have worn our fingers to the bone. However, no one can say that we have not had cooperation—some of the girls even went to the extent of cleaning up their rooms so that we might sacrifice truth for beauty in these pictures. Being typical of V. I. ourselves, we, too, have gone from frenzy to blues, so that others might see Intermont as she sees herself.

DR. H. G. NOFFSINGER

THE PRESIDENT

Kindly and sympathetic, always interested in our welfare, Dr. Noffsinger has won a place for himself in the heart of every girl at Intermont. For twenty-five years he has been both president and best friend of V. I. Dr. Noffsinger is well known as an educator, and last year was honored with the Doctor of Letters degree from the University of Richmond and the Doctor of Laws degree from King College.

The STAFF OF OUR

Mrs. Dora Hall Murrell

Mrs. Murrell is an integral part of the life of every girl at V. I. Through her close contact with the students, and by her eagerness to help, she has made our years at Intermont infinitely more pleasant.

Her delightful sense of humor and sympathetic attitude toward our problems make Mrs. Murrell the ideal dean and counsellor, whom every V. I. girl likes and admires.

Although Miss Pflug is noted for her love of horses and the great outdoors, she is equally well-known for her famous French and German classes and for the mental marvels she accomplishes by figuring out our schedules.

She draws one to her by her calm efficiency and her quiet-spoken and understanding manner. V. I. girls spend many of their happiest hours with Miss Pflug at her cabin, at the Ranch Camp.

Miss Marguerite Pflug

ADMINISTRATION

Besides being an extremely competent business manager, Mr. Noffsinger is a successful amateur photographer, as we think the pictures in this book testify. He is sincerely interested in the progress of the school, is accommodating, cheerful, and never too busy to be helpful.

Although he takes his work seriously, Mr. Noffsinger likes the lighter side of life as well, for he attends all of the school dances and may often be seen playing a crack game of tennis on the school courts. As he is also business manager of the V. I. Ranch Camp, every summer he shows up to great advantage in a ten-gallon hat.

MR. H. G. NOFFSINGER, JR.

MR. ROY C. BROWN

Most of the girls contact Mr. Brown through one of his many classes, where they become well acquainted with V. I.'s witty and versatile vice-president. Besides his interest in hunting dogs (everyone knows his famous "sitter" dog, "Brownie"), Mr. Brown is one of the most active speech men in the South, recognized as a forensic enthusiast and as the successful coach of Intermont's competent debate teams.

Besides, if ever any of us does anything worth hearing about, here is the man who sees that it gets in the home town paper.

Pike's Peak or Bust

In spite of any insinuations we may have made to the contrary, the members of the faculty, whose faces adorn these pages, have their uses.

One realizes this with a slight degree of shock when anywhere in the vicinity of Hodges Hall basement. Those various fragrances which rear their ugly heads in this district arise from the combined efforts of the Misses Egbert, McKee, and Hutchinson, together with those of their struggling students.

However, if one flees from these lower regions to the upper strata of Hodges, the odor of formaldehyde and chlorine is gradually superseded by that of something burning. This bespeaks of the toast fast being prepared by the Home Ec. department. It also comes partly from Miss Miller. Any ripping sounds one might hear in this section are probably made by Miss Kelly, who is either pulling something apart that was made hind-part-before, or just simply tearing her hair.

Should one have the energy to climb still farther, it would be to hear a clicking noise, as of many people who don't know how to type, typing. That's just what it is, and don't Miss Bingham and Miss Reid know it! Then, exploring farther, one might even come upon Miss Mays or Miss McCoy, who would probably be expounding on the Mendelian law and Oberammergau, respectively.

THE FACULTY

However, if the residents of Hodges have their little worries, so, and how, have those of Main. For one thing, ominous noises proceed incessantly from the conservatory. This is not of much comfort to anyone except possibly Mr. Schroetter, Miss Pashley, and Miss Ordway, to whom it signifies that their little pupils are diligently practicing. (But none of them ever show it when they come for their next lesson, so it all seems rather futile.) Of course, Mrs. Schroetter's little songbirds usually find time to trill during study hour. This has one advantage: it helps keep our minds off our lessons.

The cozy little nook under the Library (temperature, forty below) is under the genial management of Mr Cooke, a gentleman whose cheerful, kindly disposition disappears, as mist before the sun, when test time rolls around. While Professor Cooke thaws out, Noffie, Jr., takes over this cave and enlarges on the principles of economics (not the home type), photography, or just the joys of Bermuda and Bermuda-made suits. Under the circumstances, most of us can appreciate Bermuda's good points.

Also lurking in the subterranean depths of East Hall are Mr. Brown and Miss Ownby, those great exponents of the King's English. Some unknown factor (no doubt Mr. Brown's warm sense of humor, or Miss Ownby's electric personality) causes this portion of our ducky dungeon to be warm enough for comfortable repose on the part of the student government members, who were up most of the night quelling riots.

Won't you wait 'til the cows come home?

THOSE WHO INSTRUCT—

Rumors are rife that some of the faculty hold forth on first floor Main. We wouldn't know for sure—classroom 7, the students' lounge, and the dining room (where one senses the influence of Mrs. Knight) being the main ports of call. However, mysterious voices are sometimes heard near the door of the chapel, and there is an old, old legend to the effect that Miss Mize and Mrs. Bixby could be found somewhere around here, should one but repeat the magic words, "Pythagorean," or "Buenas dias," which call these genii from the unknown. There are those (we mention no names) who declare that one might even discover Miss Smith or Miss Wood squelching the high school hereabouts. But it is an open secret that Mademoiselle parles francais in classroom four.

The intellectuals of the school may be found (just in case anyone should want to find them) starving, as intellectuals should, in the garret. Miss Nunnally holds sway over the aspiring actresses on the summit of Main, and Miss Jones wields her brush on fifth floor East. At the end of the year, her students are fitted for careers either as artists or mountain climbers.

Those other mountain climberish-looking people, who are often seen leaping agily down to meals or walking sedately, balancing books on (and off) their heads, usually get that way from close association with Miss Rushing or Mrs. Kelly. Mrs. Matthews, of course, furnished the books, and would probably take them right back, if she saw what was happening to them. Or they (the mountain goats) might be the Mesdames Goetchius or Seay, who visit all rooms too early in the morning, and who cheerfully give us grades in the hind part of the alphabet.

We could go on about the faculty indefinitely, but we realize that some things, such as the preceding lines and the Cauldron dirt column, are better left unsaid. We've read Dale Carnegie. And we are nothing, if not tactful.

Pattering little feet at rest.

Mr. Cooke,
It has been a pleasure to be in your classes these two years. I regret that his isn't a four-year school. Your classes nd interest groups have been an inspiration to me. I appreciate your interest.
Sincerely
Margaret

Dear Mr. Cooke,
This year has meant a lot to me. I have enjoyed the interest groups with you and Miss Cooke very much - and in spite of evidence in grades to the contrary, I have gotten a lot of benefit from the Bible classes.
I am looking forward to my work on the Cauldron next year. I will surely try to do my best.
If ever you and Miss Cooke are in Atlanta, please look us up.
Sincerely,
Mary Jane.

JUNIORS

Dear Mr. Cooke -
As I look back over my wonderful days at V. I., I'll think of you the first one. You have indeed been an inspiration in everything I've done. I have enjoyed your classes so much, and you're my idea of an ideal teacher - if there is one!
I really don't know what the Jr. class would have done without you behind us. I'm sure Miss [illegible], Mary Jane and I would never have gotten a thing done for the Banquet, if it hadn't been for you. And I know I'm more than grateful to you and always will be. Here's hoping it comes out all right! I've got my fingers crossed. I shall continue this story on farther.
Just
Leigh Jean

Dear Mr. Cooke,

To one who was the sponsor of the best annual ever published at V. I. (of course, this is my first one, but I've heard from extremely reliable sources about the past editions.)

You really have no idea how much I enjoyed being in your Journalism class although I'm afraid I should have written better articles.

You just do not know how thrilled I am at being made managing editor of the Cauldron for next year and I shall certainly do my best to make the books balance!

It was also nice having you as sponsor of the Kentucky Club - we Kentuckians do have fun, don't we?

I am looking forward to next year and the course in English VI.

Sincerely yours,
Sarah

Dearest Mr. Cooke,
Gee, I surely have enjoyed knowing you these two years and I'll never forget the times you've chaperoned Ethel, Alma and me to the show. How about seeing some more westerns? And I've enjoyed helping decorate the gym for dances. The float turned out grand even though we did think it would flop. See you next year.

Dear Mr. Cooke,

This year I've enjoyed your classes and your Drama Interest Group ever so much, but I'm sorry I disappointed you by not making an A in Bible and English. STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The members of the Student Government compose our police department. They have to stay up late every night to make everyone else go to bed. One great character-building feature of this is that it teaches them not to be afraid of the dark.

What does a worthy proctor get in return for her long, hard hours of labor? Well, she can cut breakfast all year. The catch to this is that she usually gets hungry around breakfast time and decides to go anyway.

Among the executive Advisory Board who keep the Student Government officers on the straight and narrow path are Mrs. Dora Hall Murrell, chairman; Miss Marguerite Pflug, and Miss Lily G. Egbert.

The Student Government members are as follows: (Those who have gotten reprimands and campus already know.)

Mary Frances Good . . . . President
Marie Bierbaum . . . . Secretary
Jane Crenshaw—House President of Main, Administration, and West

Mary Ellen Evans . . . . House President of East
Jean Lawson, Janet Brooks, Virginia Atkinson, Helen Price, Sarah Breedlove, Clara Nell Yeiser and Emily Cassell . . . . Proctors

"THE INTERMONT"

The INTERMONT, with its separate picture of each student, gives future generations the opportunity of saying, "Here's a picture of grandmother when she went to school at V. I." But we shall cherish our INTERMONT with fond memories of the school days in which we made life long friends, worked like Trojans (sometimes), and lost weeks of sleep. In our Annual, we see V. I. in autumn, winter, and spring, beneath snow and under sunlit summer days.

We think, as we feel lumps come into our throat, that we shall never forget the associations and memories which we have of V. I. We shall always revere our annual as a diary of some of the happiest years in our life.

The Staff of our INTERMONT, which is responsible for this year's book, has been advised and guided by Mr. C. Ernest Cooke, sponsor of the Senior Class. The Staff itself is as follows:

BARBARA GAMBLE	Editor
EILEEN DEMPSEY	Business Manager
MARGUERITE PEGRAM	Assistant Editor
JANE CRENSHAW	Assistant Business Manager
VIRGINIA REZEK	Copy Editor
VIRGINIA ATKINSON	Assistant Copy Editor

MARTHA FORBES	Advertising Manager
JULIA NEWSOM	Assistant Advertising Manager

"CAULDRON"

The Cauldron is the pot where news of school activities, girls, and boy friends is boiled down to a mixture that can be safely digested.

The Cauldron has many uses. It serves as the weekly letter home twice a month, if you can dig up a stamp. Students love to read every word of the Cauldron when they know very well they should be doing French. Oh, it has many uses. We are justly proud of our school paper.

Mr. C. Ernest Cooke is the sponsor and faculty advisor for the Cauldron.

Scribes of this Cauldron Staff are:

Edna Cordts	Editor-in-Chief
Constance Guthrie Marguerite Colonna	Assistant Editors
Janet Brooks Peggy Rich	News Editors
Margaret Camblos	Literary Editor
Mary Routh Cochran	Exchange Editor
Helen Price	Business Manager
Jeanne Delveaux Margaret Loftin	Circulation Managers

The Virginia Intermont Cauldron

THE Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. of Virginia Intermont is sponsored by Miss Ethel J. McCoy. The services of the Y. W. C. A. are innumerable. It maintains an active social service department which holds an Annual Christmas party for poor children and dresses a family for Easter. This is only a part of the activities of this branch. It provides each new girl with a "big sister" who helps her to get settled in school. The Y. W. C. A. also sponsors the Drama, Art, Travel, and Knitting Interest groups. To feed starving girls in the daytime, it maintains a Tea House. To save souls at night, it supports "The Little Store."

This year the Y. W. C. A. was instrumental in building a spacious log cabin named "Little Intermont" at the Ranch Camp, where the girls may spend week-ends.

Another outstanding piece of work was the furnishing of the Nursery in the new Bristol Children's Clinic. As the new clinic is only a short distance from the school, girls interested in social service work may go over to help, any afternoon.

Members of the Cabinet of this worthy organization are:

HELEN CASE, President of Y. W. C. A.

MARY ROUTH COCHRAN First Vice-President

MARY FRANCES GOOD, Secretary and Year Book

ERDENE BOWMAN, Treasurer

RUTH DAVIS and THELMA WHITE, Social Chairmen

EDNA CORDTS, Program Chairman

GINNY ATKINSON, Social Service

BETSY ANN BERRY and ELLOUISE JONES, Little Store

PHI THETA KAPPA

Pardon us while we implore you to discard all previously formed ideas of those who make up the intelligentsia of any institution. We refuse to be individuals who always wear flat heels and thick-lensed horn-rimmed spectacles, and whose sole idea of fun is reading a nice, juicy copy of Paradise Lost, for we are really normal human beings.

To qualify for membership in Phi Theta Kappa, a national honorary society, the student must be taking the General Culture or Literary Course, and making an average of at least ninety. This organization is found only in junior colleges and corresponds to the Phi Beta Kappa in senior colleges.

Each year we go on a very refined spree. We start out with a lovely pledge service at which all members wear white. Then we take a sort of "entrance exam," (think how foul it would be if we all flunked!) and follow this up with a perfectly wonderful banquet. Later there is a very impressive initiation service, and then we are full-fledged members.

We really had a horrible time this year when we had to elect officers. There were three out of which to elect three officers, and we almost came to blows over the Vice-Presidency. This is the only position with no work attached, so naturally all three yearned for it. We contemplated drawing straws but abandoned that as being too undignified. Miss Marguerite Pflug, the Dean of Faculty and our sponsor, waited patiently while we finally decided on Janet Brooks for President, Barbara Gamble for Vice-President, and Virginia Rezek, Secretary. Virginia got the job with most work attached and she was sure it was a frame-up. We could not let our fair names become sullied, so we vigorously denied her vile accusations.

Now we must mention our one and only alumna member who is able to take an active part in the work of the new chapter. She is Elizabeth Garland.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

Membership in this National Fraternity for junior college dramatic students is taken from the local Curry Club. The President of Delta Psi Omega is Natalie De Hart. The President of Curry Club is Nancy Necessary. Membership in Delta Psi Omega is the highest honor that a dramatic student can attain.

Ideals of this organization are the true interpretation of dramatic instinct, the development of ability associated with hard work, an ambition to excel, and a high standard of achievement.

Our dramatic department head, Miss Rhoda L. Nunnally, is the sponsor of Delta Psi Omega, the goal of every dramatic student's ambition. Her tireless work, deep penetration, and endless patience have all helped to give Virginia Intermont an exceedingly high standard for dramatic productions.

The picture below is from the Christmas play, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," by Katrina Trask. Other plays presented this year by the dramatic department were "Headed for Eden," by Sidney Duval; "The Merry Wives of Boredom," by Sylvan Simon; "A Wedding," by John Kirkpatrick; "Just Another Saturday," by John Wiley; "Confessions," by A. Conan Doyle; "Sod," by Stuart Hunter; "For Distinguished Service," by Florence Knox; a scene from "Old English," by John Galsworthy, and the commencement play.

DEBATE CLUB

The present debate class was formed in 1936 under the directorship of Mr. Roy C. Brown, our debate coach. This class has been working on the question, Resolved: "That the National Labor Relations Board should be empowered to enforce arbitrations of all labor disputes."

One of the most important events of the year is the Strawberry Leaf Tournament held at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina. V. I. was very proud indeed to have Betty Lea Evans place first in poetry reading and problem solving; Barbara Gamble placed first in after-dinner speaking, and second in oratory.

DAY STUDENTS CLUB

The day students are those lucky girls who can stay home and at the same time go to V. I. They can have dates any night in the week and do not have to turn lights out at 10:30. They can cut a meal when they please and do not go on campus. They can also use their radio when and where they please.

When they want something to eat after school, they go to the kitchen. We go to the Tea House, and pay for it. They can go to movies week nights; but we must have a study period, even if we do only write letters and read movie magazines.

The officers of this lucky club are president, Frances Richards; vice-president, Helen Harkleroad; secretary, Fay Worley; and treasurer, Theresa Rader.

One of the most spectacular clubs on the campus is the tawny-maned Red Head Club. The Annual Staff feels that apologies are in order, since it was unable to obtain a color plate for this picture. The present photograph does not begin to do the girls justice.

Among the activities of this club (we will not breathe a word of these elsewhere) we may list week-ends at the Ranch Camp, and dinners and movies in town.

Officers who hold their tempestive group within the law are as follows:

Marie Bierbaum, President Jeanne Durrette, Vice-President Billy Robinson, Secretary and Treasurer

RED HEAD CLUB

Phi Rho Pi is a national forensic society for junior colleges. The Virginia Alpha Chapter of Virginia Intermont is one of the three honorary fraternities on the campus, and one of the outstanding chapters in the United States.

Since the members of Phi Rho Pi are all good speakers, it takes noise and authority to make oneself heard and obeyed among them. Officers who have done well in the great task are president, Barbara Gamble; vice-president, Ruth Murphy; and secretary, Clara Nell Yeiser.

PHI RHO PI

Mr. Roy C. Brown, the founder, sponsor, and leader of Phi Rho Pi, is distinguished among speech leaders for his outstanding teams. As a debate coach he has made Phi Rho Pi all that it is today.

To any young man who desires a beauteous junior college graduate who can cook, sew, and keep a house clean, please apply to the Home Economics Club. Do not rush, please, for the line forms to the right.

This very practical club is sponsored by Miss Dora Miller. The club belongs to the State and National Home Economics Organizations and also contributes garments to the Needlework Guild. It is an activity of the Home Economics Course in V. I.

Mary Elizabeth Hays	President	Pawnee Akers	Secretary
Beth Ann Moore	Vice-President	Mary Cook	Treasurer

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

ART CLUB

As the colony of artists in Greenwich Village attracts attention in New York City, so does our Art Club draw much interest on the V. I. campus.

Miss Lulu Jones, Art director of the college, is sponsor of the Club, which was established in 1930. In the meetings the girls study the old masters, for inspiration and help. A project recently completed by the club is a new club room which is beautifully furnished.

Girls who direct the club activities as officers are: President, Martha Carpenter; vice-president, Virginia Elder; secretary, Eleanor Blydenburgh; treasurer, Jackie Moran; and social leaders, Peggy Dunlap, Ernestine Varona, and Susan Kearfott.

When one sees a girl madly dashing toward the chapel at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon, one may conclude that she's going to Glee Club, and that she's late. This Glee Club is composed of girls who have "the voices that you love to hear." The hearing is done by the student body during Sunday Vespers, and also at chapel, when the choir leads the singing.

GLEE CLUB

Mrs. S. T. Schroetter, voice teacher of V. I., is the able director of the Glee Club. Ambitious plans for the spring which the girls are supporting wholeheartedly, are a performance of the "Mikado" in March, and two spring recitals: one, a concert of sacred music, and the other, a concert version of Bizet's "Carmen."

The Pine Tree State has contributed many little "Tar Heels" to V. I. Whenever one hears a "Cahlina, Lina" one may well guess that a "Tar Heel" is in hailing distance.

What we would really like to know is, are there really as many pine trees in "Cahlina" as the "Tar Heels" say, or are they only trying to put one over on us?

TAR HEEL CLUB

The officers do not hang pine cones on their room walls—neither for Biology nor sentiment. So that you may believe your own eyes, I will tell you that Mary Routh Cochran is president; Mary Hunter Isaacs is vice-president, and Marguerite Pegram is secretary and treasurer. Now go look for yourself!

Go west, young man, go west, for there are some girls worth knowing in West Virginia. Besides being "West," it is also "Virginia," and this is a combination which means something.

WEST VIRGINIA CLUB

This club was formed in 1936, under the sponsorship of Miss Elizabeth Garland. This year Miss Grace Hutchinson is in her first year as its leader.

Officers who keep this ole West Virginia spirit alive are president, Mildred Cox; vice-president, Christine Akers; secretary, Kitty Cook; and treasurer, Mavis Epling.

SOUTHERN BELLES

One frequently hears of the belle of the ball or the life of the party, but these girls are belles of the South, and of Southern Virginia in particular. These representatives of Old Dominion state have as their theme song first, last, and always, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny." This state which is nicknamed the "mother of presidents" is indeed loved by all V. I. girls.

Officers of this club whose grandmothers were belles of the pre-Civil War period are: President, Janet Brooks; vice-president, Ruth Davis; and secretary, Martha Forbes.

Girls who hail from an "Ole Kentucky Home," compose the members of this club. They proudly admit that although they never knew Daniel Boone, their ancestors probably did. As to the Kentucky blue grass, they have disillusioned us by telling us that it's really green after all. However, we do know that Kentucky is famous for its beautiful women, as these pictures show.

KENTUCKY CLUB

The sponsor of this club is Mr. C. Ernest Cooke. Kentucky also raises first class horses. The Kentucky Club returned to the days of Daniel Boone during a week-end at the Ranch Camp. Other sharpshooters to avoid when seen with a rifle are: President, Nancy Lee Newland; vice-president, Sarah Yeargin, and secretary, Marjorie Jones.

TENNESSEE CLUB

As the United States is famous for its Tennessee hillbillies, so also is Tennessee renowned for her contributions to V. I. What would we do without our yodeling, yelling Yeiser to make us laugh?

This noisy club was started in 1934 under the name of the East Tennessee Club, but, because those in Middle and West Tennessee felt left out, this year the club was expanded to include all Teneseee. Now everyone is happy. Miss Mildred Mays is sponsor of this club whose state claims Andrew Jackson.

A popcorn and a Christmas party constitute the club's activities. Officers of the ballad-singing, fiddle-sawing group are:

Leigh Jean Dick	President
Laura Snow Austin	Vice-President
Eleanor Smith	Secretary

Girls from the "Gator" Club come to V. I. from a land of sunshine, orange blossoms, Spanish moss and 'gators. At least they do, unless our geography books are mistaken.

Unlike the lazy alligators, these girls have turned their club into one of the most active state clubs now in school.

THE "GATOR" CLUB

Some of the activities of this club which is sponsored by Miss Isabella Calhoun, are popularity contests, sale of theatre tickets, benefit bridge parties, dinner and theatre parties, and outings.

Officers for the Floridian Club are:

Pat Mays . . President

Helen Brokaw, Vice-President

Pat Williams, Secretary and Treasurer

Martha Louise Sutton, Reporter

NORTHERN CLUB

When a girl is seen to go blithely out of doors during freezing weather wearing only a thin jacket, one may conclude she is a Northerner.

One thing outstanding about a Northern girl is that when she walks down the street with her roommate she is usually a half block ahead of her. Another thing is that Southerners still have a certain nickname for Northerners which is returned with interest.

The sponsor of this new club which was formed last fall is Miss Clara Pashley. The officers who tell the girls how to keep out of fights are: President, Alma Carpenter; vice-president, Helen Price; and secretary-treasurer, Martha Carpenter.

The Cuban girls at V. I. are famous for their good humor, laughter, and siestas. They speak English very well indeed and we only wish that we knew a third as much Spanish. Mercedes is an example of how many friends a girl can have. From these Cubans we hear of palm trees, mangos, and surf bathing. We believe that some day we may break little brother's bank and go see for ourselves. When we hear a bunch of the girls all speaking at once, we believe on second thought that we might as well not go.

Mrs. Bixby, V. I's Spanish teacher, is sponsor of this club. Officers of this Spanish group are: President, Maria Hogge; vice-president, Pilar Balado; and secretary-treasurer, Mercedes Lingoya.

CUBAN CLUB

GALAMISS CLUB

You have read of thrift, you may even have practiced it, but my dears, here it is in the name "Galamiss." The explanation of this original club is that some "lost souls" from the deep South decided to organize as there was safety only in numbers. The club is a combination of the abbreviations of Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi. The girls in this club really do have a gala time. Club officers who direct these good times are:

Frances Hardie . . . . President
Marguerite MacDonald . . . . Vice-President
Mary Jane Gentry . . . . Secretary

The function of this club is to keep V. I. girls who live in Roanoke in touch with one another during vacations. Two annual events are a progressive dinner at Christmas and a luncheon during Easter. Numerous teas are given also. The Roanoke girls at V. I. also always attend the Roanoke-King College football game.

Club officers are Pat Murphy, president; Lib Ergenbright, vice-president; Thelma White, secretary; and Pawnee Akers, reporter. The club is sponsored by Miss Grace Reid, and was established in 1932.

THE ROANOKE CLUB

Y. W. A.

The Y. W. A. is the college Young Women's Auxiliary which has as its ideal the highest development of Christian womanhood. Its purpose is the religious guidance of all girls in school, and it endeavors to help each girl find God. The Y. W. A. sponsors the Morning Watch Service, Christmas Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions, March Week of Prayer for Home Missions, and an annual Mission Study class. In addition to this it carries on an active campaign of social service work and conducts the Christmas and Easter Vesper service, besides inspirational programs twice a month.

Many social events are included on the calendar, the first of which was a delightful banquet climaxing the membership drive.

Miss Rhoda L. Nunnally is the adviser for this important campus organization. The officers in the council are:

VIRGINIA REZEK	MARY ELLEN EVANS	CLARA NELL YEISER	JANET BROOKS	MARTHA FORBES
President	Vice-President	Secretary and Treasurer	Program Chairman	Devotional Chairman
MILDRED MAYS	THELMA WHITE	RUTH DAVIS	RUTH MURPHY	FRIEDA SILER
Publicity Chairman	Social Chairman	Music Chairman	Personal Chairman	Mission Study Chairman

SOCIAL COMMITTEES

Of all clubs on the V. I. campus the Social Committee is among the most important to the girls. The reason? Because it was organized to assist Mrs. Murrell in planning the social functions of the college. Our hearts leap in anticipation of the dances, and we smack our lips at the idea of the teas. This committee helps to take our mind off lessons, and this in itself is a worthy activity.

The girls should give the committee three cheers for saving their lives on numerous occasions.

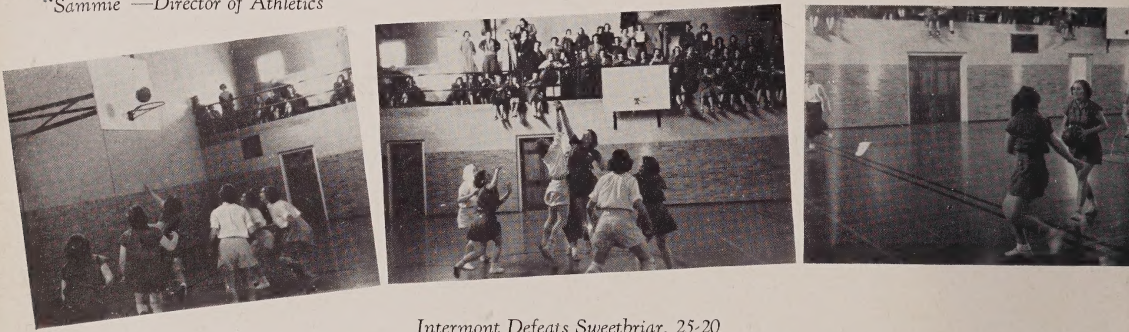
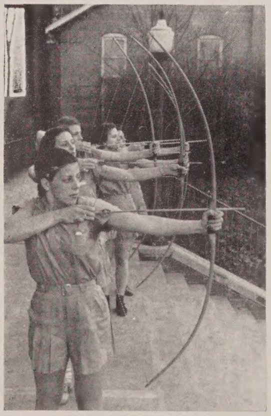
Virginia Intermont Varsity Basket-ball Team



Intermont Defeats Sweetbriar, 25-20



Archery Team

Intermont's varsity basket-ball team had a short but successful season this year. Victims of these high-spirited, light-footed, goal-shooting girls were, outside of independent inter-class teams and faculty, Abingdon, Damascus, Sweetbriar, and Lincoln Memorial University.

Informal Shots of

Sports at Intermont

During the third week in March the independent class games were held. After a due process of elimination, the final game of Seniors vs. Juniors turned out an overwhelming victory for the Juniors by a score of 43-21.

Posture Week was brought to a close the night of the final game with the chosen contestants parading before the animated spectators at the half. The judges decided on the best posture as follows; first, Ann Sutton; second, Carlene McRoy; third, Leigh Jean Dick.

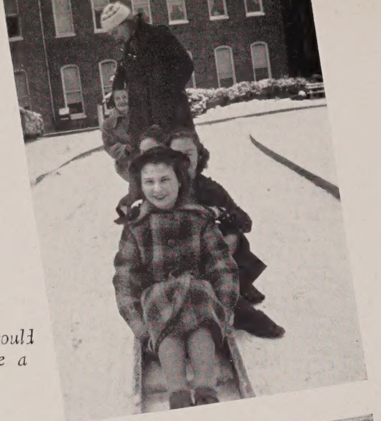
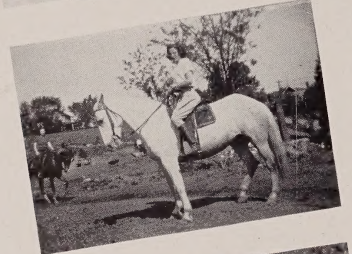
Beauty and the beast.

Our bashful yet oh, so congenial riding master, Dick.

Anybody coming?



Brother, could you spare a push?



Study in white.

We've seen the tunnel, now bring on the eats!

The calm before the hit.

Mercy, mighty Marie!

Attention, please—the instructor will demonstrate.

The budget—he can't budge it. What fine teeth you have, grandma!

Now Yeiser, where do you think that'll get you: in the end?

Arctic Hunter. Consider the daisies of the field. Make Mac's a Martini—dry.

They must have him treed! Wherefore art thou, Romeo?

What's the admission, Price?

Much study is a weariness of the flesh.

"Who's been sleeping in my bed?" said the little bear.

Could this be study hour?

HERE ARE A FEW QUICK FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT INTERMONT:

1. Founded 1884 at Glade Spring, Va.
2. Moved to Bristol, Va., 1892.
3. Originally chartered and granted degrees as a four-year institution.
4. Became a Junior College in 1912.
5. Charter member of American Association of Junior Colleges—there are now approximately 500 Junior Colleges in United States.
6. One of the first two Junior Colleges to attain membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This was in 1925. Ward Belmont was the other school and it came into the association at the same time.
7. Virginia Intermont now accredited by the University of the State of New York. (This is the famed Regents Board.)
8. The school has no debt and no interest to pay on a mortgage, or dividends to stock or bondholders. It has not had a cent of debt in twenty years.
9. Assets of the school are over a million dollars.
10. The school is endowed and the funds ($170,000.00) conservatively invested.
11. Most of the supplies for the college tables come from the school's own model dairy and farm of over a thousand acres.
12. During the unique history of the school there has never been a year in which a deficit was shown by the auditor's report.
13. There are 400 students from 30 states enrolled this session.
14. There are 40 members of the faculty and staff.
15. Over a thousand meals are served each day in the dining-hall. Students drink 35 gallons of milk a day, eat over a thousand pounds of meat a week.
16. Eleven members of the staff have served a total of 226 years.
17. For all these reasons, rates are low—write for catalog.

BUNTING'S FOR DRUGS

Bunting's touches the life of Virginia Intermont as closely as any business in Bristol. It is a great satisfaction to us to know that our pharmaceutical department has cooperated with the college infirmary for many years in protecting the health of V. I. students. All of your films from the bookstore are finished in our photographic department. And our soda fountain and toilet department have always catered to Bristol students. We appreciate your patronage.

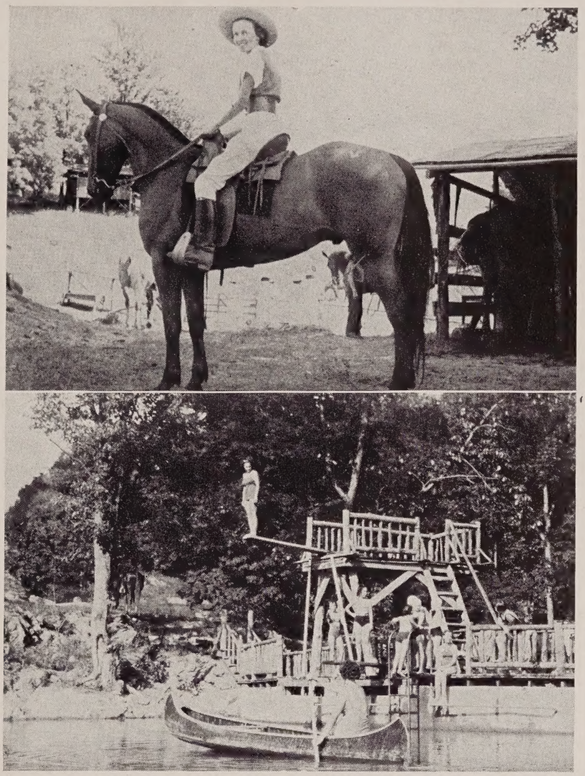
CONFIDENCE

Confidence has nothing to do with age or size. Though we're old in years and the largest store in this region, we've built on the confidence our customers have placed in us as a store of integrity, honest merchandising, and truthful advertising. Your confidence is the main thing we prize . . . and trust that we may continually merit.

THE H. P. KING COMPANY



RANCHING THIS SUMMER FOR V. I. GIRLS

Come and join the jolly crowd of Intermont girls at "Little Intermont" this summer, and spend several delightful weeks in the company of good friends from whom you may soon be separated!

"Little Intermont" will be reserved for college girls throughout the entire camp season, from June 29 to August 19. With Mrs. Seay as "house-mother" and a lively group of girls to make things interesting, you may be sure that life at the ranch will not be dull. If you are athletically inclined, you can fill your days with riding, hiking, swimming, tennis, archery, roping, horseshoe-pitching, badminton, paddle-ball, dancing, and many other interesting activities. If you are tired and worn out from the year's work, bring your knitting and sit by the fireside or perch on a rock with a book in one of the many delightfully cool spots overlooking as beautiful scenery as can be found anywhere.

V. I. Ranch Camp also has "Midget" and "Intermediate" groups with special interest and instruction for each. The food is excellent; the equipment is splendid. Everyone has a glorious time. For catalog and information write or see

AUTOGRAPHS

April 10, 1938

Mr. Cooke,

Whenever I think of dear 'ole U.I and all it's happy memories, I'll always associate you with them. Knowing you has meant much to my college days - a real inspiration. I have truly gained so much in your Bible classes - I hope to have the same pleasure in English next year. I have gained a lot in these informal interest groups, and I have really learned to appreciate the fine arts. My eyes have been opened to new interests in art and music. I appreciate your interests and hope that I can always uphold the high standards set before me.

I will always prize my friendship with you both in class and out. I hope to see more of Miss Cooke and you.

Always remember me -

Sincerely,
Marquerite A. Colonna

Dear Mr. Cooke,

Whenever I think of great things hereafter, I shall think of you, for indeed you have such high ideals in life. Words can not express my appreciation of one who has been so inspiring to me, you have opened my eyes to some true facts in life which I probably never would have seen had it not been for you. There have been times that you were unaware of someone watching you; yes, I have and through such moments I have seen one living a true Christian life everywhere he goes. I have some very inspiring notes on some things you have said and some day I shall deliver a speech and refer to my "inspiring Bible teacher in College at U.I.

Even though I did shift chaperons one night maybe it was because I liked your company better!. I shall never forget that night.

Sincerely
Pauline U. Martin

OGRA

, 1938

Dear Mr. Cooke,

One of my fondest memories of V. I. will be that of the Sunday evening Interest Groups. I feel that they have opened entirely new vistas to me, and I shall always try to keep up with them after this. I have learned so much about appreciation of good things that now I prefer _Tristan and Isolde_ to even _Maytime_. Believe me, that's some progress! I also love pictures now and don't read the funnies anymore! That's also the March of Time. No fooling, I have learned to appreciate beautiful things, and I owe it all to you. My ideas certainly have changed for the better. I have so much enjoyed listening to the operas over here as well. Will you ever forget those last two concert episodes? I'm afraid I _never_ will! The times that groups of us went to hear Lotte Lehmann, the National Symphony and Grace Moore were loads of fun, even if we were deaf for a week.

I think your apartment is one of the most beautiful places I have ever seen. Dalies Frantz said that Stokowski would think so too. Remember? You know the most about Art, literature and drama of anyone I've ever known. I hope some day that I can have seen half of the things abroad that you have. Need I say that your sense of humor is also tops? Someday I want to have done as many interesting things as you have done. One of the turning points of my life was when I came to V. I. to have such close association with beautiful things and such grand people. I know that I shall remember V. I. always, and you for the things that I have become interested in that I knew nothing about before. Thank you so very much.

Sincerely,

Ginny Atkinson

OGRA

Easter Sunday 1938

Dear Mr. Cooke,

Never a day passes at Intermont that you don't astound me anew with your profound knowledge. I have the deepest admiration and respect for your sympathetic understanding of all you come in contact with, for your wholly delightful sense of humor, for your reverence and appreciation of the beauty and the poetry in life, for your loyalty to V. I., and many more innumerable things.

One of my greatest of regrets is that I have not spent more time in your interest groups. It certainly has not been lack of interest, as you may have supposed, but my conscience weighs heavily on me when I am just purely enjoying myself. There are still a few Sundays left that I plan to take advantage of, however.

Your love for the truly great in every field is inspiring, and I have glimpsed greatness through your eyes with real and new pleasure. It has honestly been an inspiration just to sit in your classes. I love for people to say things that I believe, too, and it makes me so happy to hear such things coming from your lips. You really never utter a word that goes unnoticed – whether you realize it. You are V. I.'s surprise delight because we don't see so many pictures of you in the annual catalogue.

You add so much to the life of every V. I. girl, and I think you are wonderful to be so interested in each girl's life. We do appreciate your kind interest and help in so many things. I shall remember you most fondly in San Francisco the next couple years and in later life, as that unselfish, inspiring, grand person and friend and teacher. My hours spent with you and Miss Cooke were the happiest I enjoyed at Intermont. With best regards for you always,

Sincerely,

Virginia Rezek

P.S. – Please forgive me for always being late to class and always laughing longer than anyone else.

Sunday Nite
(Our last Dramatic Interest Group)

"Hamlet" Darling:

The preceding masterpiece — written all to you — will make my few words look rather sad. I could write volumes, but they would merely be a repetition of the wonderful things I think about you. You make me feel like going out and getting famous — so if I ever am, you will have been my inspiration.

You've made me appreciate the better things in life — and your (sense!) humor could never be equalled.

LouisE "Ophelia" Long

Mr. Cooke, I have never known anyone who could do so many things and do them well. You are undoubtedly the most remarkable man — a very fine husband for someone. I never could say what I meant but still I think you are the tops. Don't forget my cordial invitation to visit me and my hubby when you're in Baltimore.

Always!
Gene Cowlee

P.S. Also Mr. Cooke I'll never forget your courtesy as we went from U.I. Christmas on the train.

Dear Mr. Cooke,

You can't know how much I've enjoyed being in your class and I won't ever forget Hamlet. If you'll come down to the hills of Tennessee to see me I'll teach you how to plow and drive cattle. I hope in lots of ways that I'm back next year — one way — that I can finish the bible course that I started under you — PERHAPS I need it.

Love,
Eleanor Smith.

P.S. We have corn in Church Hill

Dearest Mr Cooke —

Though you have tried awfully to freeze me, frighten and forget me in my hours of need (i.e. Bible exams) I will for a long time to come know that one of my reasons — and a most important one — for coming back next year is that you will be here — you have been ever so helpful, (even at "julep time") and knowing you, even though slightly, has meant much to me.

When, if, and as, I give the course you prescribed, you shall have the front seat and to you — the honor of "Chief Taster" —

Love,

Peggy Cantlon
